Federal Updates

- Secretary Mnuchin and Senator Schumer reached a deal on the Paycheck Protection Increase Act on Tuesday. The two sides have agreed to a total of $470 billion in additional relief aid. The bill passed the Senate by unanimous consent this afternoon, the House is expected to follow suit later this week.

- The major funding elements of this legislation include:
  - $310 billion for PPP.
  - $60B set aside for underbanked businesses.
  - $60 billion for the EIDL program.
  - $75 billion for hospitals.
  - $25 billion for coronavirus testing.

Media Coverage

- Colorado – Denver Courses to Reopen Wednesday
- New Jersey – Ease Coronavirus Restrictions and Reopen NJ’s Golf Courses, Republican Lawmakers ask Murphy
- Phoenix – Online Petition Seeks to Reopen Sun City West Golf Courses

State Updates

- California – Certain counties across California are beginning to ease their “Stay at Home” restrictions and courses are being allowed to reopen. In addition to Madera, Merced, Placer, Sacramento, San Luis Obispo and Ventura Counties, golf courses are permitted to reopen in Riverside County. The county commissioners voted on the issue Monday evening.

- Florida – Miami-Dade Mayor Gimenez announced via a Facebook Question & Answer yesterday (Monday), that he was ready to introduce a countywide plan to reopen parks, marinas, and golf courses. Mayor Gimenez did not specify when he would introduce the plan but said to expect an announcement soon. Please click HERE for an article from the Miami Herald.

- Texas – The Alamo Golf trail announced that all eight of San Antonio’s municipally owned courses would open on Wednesday. This follows the amended county and city “Safer at Home” order that permitted public and private courses to reopen last Thursday. Please click HERE for more.

- States with an Executive Order but courses can remain open for play:
  - Certain jurisdictions have issued closures

- States with an Executive Order and required course closures but maintenance allowed:
  - Alaska, Illinois, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Nevada, New Mexico, Pennsylvania, Vermont, Washington

- Executive Order issued with required course closures and maintenance not allowed:
  - None currently

- States without a “Stay at Home” Order and golf remains open for play:
  - Arkansas, Iowa, Nebraska